Applications Now Being Accepted for Leadership Dutchess 2008 Class

Wappingers Falls, NY...The Chamber Foundation, Inc., the educational arm of the Greater Southern Dutchess Chamber of Commerce, is accepting applications for its Leadership Dutchess Class of 2008. Enrollment in the 8 month leadership course is by employer nomination.

The class, which meets monthly and is comprised of regional professionals, covers topics such as leadership styles, stress management, managing diverse personalities in the workplace, county government and community service.

Reflecting on the program, Nick Bueti of The Valley Group and a member of the Class of 2007 said, the program brought together “twenty individuals from different walks of life, with little in common...now, we are twenty friends...who have been prepared by a tremendous program that...makes the community we live in a better place for all.”

Eileen Miller of Health Quest and a Class of 2007 alumna, said that the Leadership Dutchess sessions on group dynamics and team building have served her well in a new position which requires her to work with a variety of teams as opposed to previously working autonomously, helping her become more comfortable in a team environment and making her more open to others’ ideas and suggestions.

Applications can be downloaded from the Greater Southern Dutchess Chamber Foundation’s website at <http://www.gsdcc.org/foundationpress.php>. For further information, employers should contact The Chamber Foundation, Inc. at 845.296.0001.
